Psalm 27

Reading: Psalm 27:1-14

David had a “enemy” in King Saul but how did he respond? Where did His confidence come from?

There is nothing that we will face that God is not with us through it. What is the promise that God gives us in I Corinthians 10:13?

I Corinthians 10:13 - “No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.”

If death is no longer an enemy of God – what should we fear? The answer is simple but sometimes hard for us to grasp.

Where do we find real strength? Where is His presence found?

What do we do when our “father and mother forsake us”? How did he turn around the rejection that he felt?

Promise to cling to this week: “Wait on the LORD;
Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart;
Wait, I say, on the LORD!” (Verse 14)
