Psalm 33

Reading: Psalm 33:1-22

When the foundations of our nation look like they are unraveling – what does God call us to?

How does reading Psalm 33:8-12 that the “counsel of the Lord stands forever” give us comfort and hope for the future?

God sees the earth in two ways – collective nations and individual lives. Why should that matter to our lives?

What does it mean that “He fashions their hearts individually”? How does God know our individual hearts?

1 Peter 2:9-10 - “But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light, who once were not a people but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy but now has obtained mercy.”

How is God’s amazing love demonstrated to us in that He knows us within our nation and even on the street where we live?

Promise to cling to this week: “Behold the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His mercy, To deliver their soul from death, And to keep them alive in famine.” (verse 18-19)
