Psalm 36

Reading: Psalm 36:1-12

When David describes the faithfulness of God, he uses the picture of the clouds. What other pictures does he use to describe God's character?

Like David's "oracle" within his heart - why is meditation on truth so important?

2 Corinthians 10:4-6 - "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ...."

Why is it critical to "take every into captivity to the obedience of Christ" and what does that look like for our individual lives?

There are people who are actually devising wickedness on their beds. How do we have discernment to see truth in this time?

Hebrews 10:24-25 - "And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching."

In the middle of wickedness – when David speaks about the "fullness of His house" – how does this place give David strength?

Promise to cling to this week: "Your mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens; Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds. Your righteousness is like the great mountains; Your judgments are a great deep; O Lord, You preserve man and beast." (verses 5-6)
