

The Book of Psalms

You Thought I Was Altogether Like You

Psalm 50

Reading: Psalm 50:1-23

What two aspects of God do we typically focus on when we first come to faith in Jesus?

What character aspect of God do we see brought into focus in this Psalm?

What are a few things that keep us as believers from hearing the Lord speak to us?

After more than 400 years of silence, God spoke to four different people. To whom did He speak and how was He announcing the breaking of the silence?

Romans 5:8 - “God demonstrated His love for us that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.”

How often do we think about God from our human lens? What exact “rebuke” does verse 21 give us that puts our lives in perspective?

Promise to cling to this week: “Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God will shine forth. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent; (verse 2b & 3a)
